CIVIL ACTION NO. 7:15-CV-408

ORDER

Pending before the Court is “Defendant’s Motion to Appear Telephonically,”<sup>1</sup> filed by Defendant on December 10, 2015. Because the motion is unopposed, the Court considers it as soon as practicable.<sup>2</sup> In his motion, Defendant’s counsel Jack Kauffman requests leave to appear by phone for the initial pretrial conference, currently scheduled for December 15, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. As cause for the request, counsel explains that he is traveling for another matter which may “require his absence to extend into the week of December 14, 2015.”<sup>3</sup> Furthermore, counsel states any “last minute” transportation arrangement undertaken to be present in court on December 15, 2015 would be “extremely expensive.”<sup>4</sup>

The Court disfavors telephonic appearances without extenuating circumstances, finding that in-person attendance materially furthers case progress. Defendant’s counsel has not shown extenuating circumstances and only offers that he is traveling. Additionally, the attorney-in-
